OHIO LEGISLATURE.

Columbus, Jan. 21, 1865.—A bill introduced into the Senate will attract considerable attention. It is designed to sid in the anforcement of the draft, and provides that if any person hable to draft under the laws of the United States shall secrete himself, or absent himself from the place of his residence with intent to evade the draft, or being drafted shall fail to report to the proper officer as required by law, such persons shall be utterly incapable, in law, of making a contract, or holding or acquiring property. Skedaddlers will do well to take notice.

Resolutions were intended.

THE HISTORY OF DR. SCHENCE'S OWN CASE AND HOW HE WAS CURED OF CONSUMPTION. Many years ago, whilst residing in Philide phia, I had progressed gradually into the last stage of Pulmonary Consumption. All hopes of my recovery being dissipated, I was advised by my physician, Dr. Parrish, to remove into the country. Moorestown, New Jersey, being my native place, I was removed thither. My father and all his family had lived and died there—and died of Pulmonary Consumption. On my arrival I was put to bed, where I lay father's family physician, and had attended him WILL AMONG ALL THE PEOPLE. thought my case entirely beyond the reach of affairs. In this appearantly hopeless condition, I heard of the remedies which I now make and sell. It seemed to me that I could feel them working their way, and penetrating every nerv My lungs and liver put on a new action, and the norbid matter which for years had accum-ulated and irritated the different organs of the body, was eliminated, the tubercles of my lungs ripened, and I expectorated from my lungs much as a pint of yellow offensive matter ever morning. As this expectoration of matter sub-sided, the fever abated, the pain left me, the cough ceased to harrass me, and the exhausting night-sweets were no longer known, and I had refreshing sleep, to which I had long been stranger. My appetite now began to return, and at times I found it difficult to restrain myself from eating too much; with this return of health, I gained in strength, and now am fleshy I am now a healthy man, with a large healed cicatrix in the middle lobe of the right lung and To Arms! To Arms! the lower lobe hepatized with complete adhesion of the pleura. The left lung is sound, and the upper lobe of the right one is in a tolerably healthy condition.

Consumption at that time was thought to be an incurable disease, by every one, physicisms as well as those who were unlearned in mediie-especially such cases as were reduced to the condition I was in. This induced many people to believe my recovery only temporary.

I now prepared and gave the medicine to consumptives for some time, and made many wonderful cures; and the demands increased so rapidly that I determined to offer them to the public, and devote my undivided attention to diseases. In truth I was next to forced to it for people wound send for me far and near, to For many years, in conjunction with my principal office in Philadelphia, I have been making regular professional visits to New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Pittsburg.

For several years past I have made as as five hundred examinations weekly with the "Respirometer." For such examination my charge is three dollars, and it enables me to give each patient the true condition of his disease and tell him frankly whether he will get well. The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, that they try to do too much; New Photograph Rooms they give medicines to stop the cough, to stop the night-sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive system, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient

The Pulmonic Syrup is one of the most valnable medicines known. It is nutrient, powerfully tonic, and healing in itself. It contains no opium, yet loosens the phlegm in the bronchial tubes, and nature throws it off with little exertion. One bottle frequently cures an ordinary cold; but it will be well first to take a dose of Schenck's Mandrake's Pills to cleanse the stomach. The Pulmonic Syrup is readily di-gested and absorbed into blood, to which it im-Cake Baskets, Castors, Butter Dishes, lissolves the mucus in the stomach, and is carried off by the aid of the Mandrake Pills, a healthy flow of gastric juice, good appetite and tomach, liver, and digestive powers are completely destroyed, and lose their appetite for food. No one was ever cured of consumption by this process, where cavities have been formed in the lungs. A little stimulant is frequently beneficial to consumptives, such as purbrandy or good wines; in many cases London porter or brown stout in moderate quatities; but its effects that a wineglass full will digest a hearty meal, and a little of it taken before breakfast will give a tone to the stomach which few medicines possess the power of doing.
